

Confessions

CONFESSION IS GOOD FOR THE SOUL....OR IS IT?

Secrets have a way of festering inside of us. Sometimes we release them, sometimes they find their way out. Most the time, they come with a whole set of problems.

In this tantalizing compilation of stories, fifteen talented writers explore what happens when secrets and lies are revealed. From Nicole Bird Faulkner's story about a woman whose fear of marriage sends her running into the arms of her ex....to Eric Jamal's story about a man who can't let go of the love of his life....to Nakecia Bower's tale about a scorned wife ready to exact revenge on a celebrity....to Corey Bu-Shea's story about an NBA athlete whose whole life is upended by a devastating secret...to Tamika Lucas' story about a woman whose husband reveals he wants a divorce, just as she's about to tell him she won the lottery...these riveting stories will have you clamoring for more as they show the best – and the worst – of what happens when secrets and lies are revealed.
